How Generous Are We?

Welcome to the "How Generous Are We?" assessment.
This small assessment is designed to take a snapshot of the various generosity values, barriers and attributes of you and our church community. It should only take 5-7 minutes to fill out. These questions are designed to capture our church’s current generosity temperature. So, please respond to the questions as honestly as you can by stating how you are feeling or acting at this particular time and moment. Please know that all of your answers are anonymous and will go a long way toward helping our church better imitate the generosity of God. Thank you again for your participation. Let’s get started!

What best describes your financial state right now? (Check only one)
- I'm struggling right now and wished I had some financial counseling.
- I'm struggling to keep up with day-to-day expenses right now.
- I'm fairly stable, but just making ends meet.
- I'm fairly secure, able to make ends meet and have some left over.
- I have more than I need for myself and my family.

Check any of the topics below that would encourage your financial educational needs. (Check all that apply)
- Building a budget
- Getting out of debt
- Building a savings and/or investment plan
- Saving or managing college costs
- Planning for retirement
- Spending coaching and accountability
- Managing bankruptcy
- Couples financial coaching
- Building a giving plan
- None
Other, please specify: ________________

Which scenario best exhibits your giving? (Check only one)
- I give when I see a need and feel compelled to give something to help.
- I give around 3-5% of my income each year.
- I give 10% of my income each year.
- I give over 10% of my income each year.
- I’m not in a position to be able to give right now.

What motivates you the most to give?

Rank the following from the "Best" to the "Least" relevant to you. Which one is the best? Which one is second best...and so on?

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Motivation</th>
<th>Best</th>
<th>2nd Best</th>
<th>3rd Best</th>
<th>Least</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>I give out of love and how it makes me feel when I’m helping someone or something with my resources.</td>
<td>o</td>
<td>o</td>
<td>o</td>
<td>o</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>I give out of obedience.</td>
<td>o</td>
<td>o</td>
<td>o</td>
<td>o</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>I give to support the vision and mission of my church’s programs.</td>
<td>o</td>
<td>o</td>
<td>o</td>
<td>o</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>I give out of response to what grace I have been given by God through His son Jesus Christ.</td>
<td>o</td>
<td>o</td>
<td>o</td>
<td>o</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

How would you describe your investment to serve those in need (i.e., the poor, the widow, the orphan and the outsider)? (Check only one)
- I don’t feel called to serve those in need.
- Unfortunately, I just don’t have the time right now to serve people in need.
- I think of my financial giving as the way to serve people in need.
- I want to serve those in need, but I am unaware of opportunities that are best for me.
- I serve regularly in a ministry or not-for-profit that helps people in need.